

LOWER OPERATING COSTS AND MINIMIZE DOWNTIME

MCRC | MAJOR COMPONENT REBUILD CENTERS

RingPower.com

Ring Power®

MCRC | MAJOR COMPONENT REBUILD CENTERS

Ring Power can help you manage operating costs and minimize downtime. Our Major Component Rebuild Centers in Tampa and St. Augustine offer more than 61,000 square feet of work area combined, and 23 Cat® certified technicians working two full-time shifts to rebuild the power train components on any of your machines.

ENGINE REBUILDS

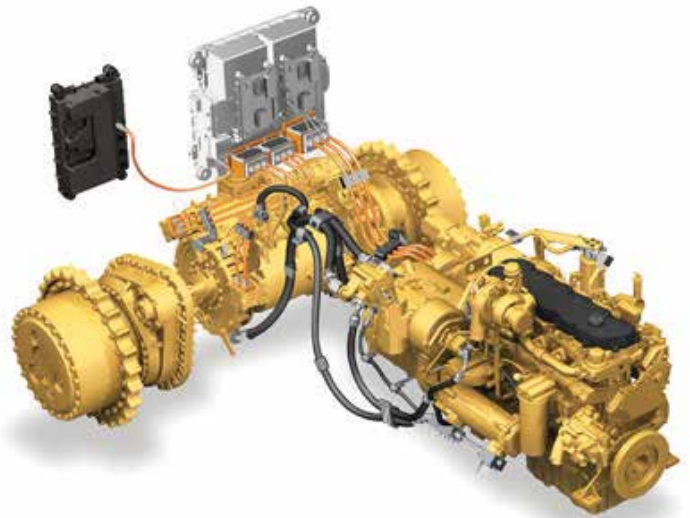

- Disassemble engine and inspect parts for reusability per Cat guidelines
- Salvage parts to minimize cost of replacement
- Reassemble engine with Cat parts
- Dyno-test engine to Cat quality and performance specifications
- Supply customer written copy of engine dyno reports

TRANSMISSION & TORQUE CONVERTER REBUILDS

- Disassemble transmission and torque converter
- Salvage parts to lower cost of replacement
- Reassemble transmission and torque converter with Cat parts
- Dyno-test transmission to Cat quality and performance specifications
- Supply customer written copy of transmission dyno reports

ENGINE COMPONENT SERVICES

- Rebuild fuel system and governors
- Test fuel injectors and nozzles
- Rebuild water pumps, turbochargers, air compressors and oil pumps
- Clean and test oil coolers and after coolers

POWER TRAIN COMPONENT REBUILDS

- Winches
- Final drives
- Axles and differentials
- Transfer cases and torque hubs
- Power train pump

Ring Power adheres to Cat's strict reusability guidelines, which allows us to offer an unprecedented 5 year/10,000 hour warranty. Ask your Product Support Sales Rep what additional benefits are available if we rebuild the complete power train.

Ring Power®

